LiveDeal, Inc. (the "Company") will be unable to file its Annual Report on Form 10-K for its fiscal year ended September 30, 2013 (the "Form 10-K") within the prescribed time period because the Company is still in the process of determining, in consultation with its independent registered public accounting firm and outside legal counsel, whether certain accounts receivable need to be written off as uncollectible and/or if a reserve needs to be established in respect such accounts receivable as of September 30, 2013. This delay could not have been avoided without unreasonable effort or expense to the Company. The Company intends to file the Form 10-K on or before the fifteenth calendar day following the prescribed due date for the Form 10-K.

Anticipated Changes in Results of Operations – Fiscal Year Ended September 30, 2013 Compared to Fiscal Year Ended September 30, 2012

As of the date of this filing, we have not yet finalized our consolidated financial statements and required disclosures for inclusion in our Annual Report on Form 10-K for our fiscal year ended September 30, 2013, and our independent registered public accounting firm has not completed its audit of our anticipated results of operations. As a result, our final, audited results of operations, which we anticipate we will file on a Form 10-K with the Securities and Exchange Commission on or before the fifteenth calendar day following the prescribed due date for the Form 10-K, could differ materially from the unaudited, preliminary results of operations set forth below.

We anticipate reporting that net revenues were $2.4 million in fiscal 2013, as compared to $3.1 million in fiscal 2012, primarily due to the end of billing services by local exchange carriers (LECs), which was partially offset by increases in revenues from our new online marketing products.

We anticipate reporting that cost of services and operating expenses were $0.6 million and $4.1 million, respectively, in fiscal 2013, as compared to $0.7 million and $3.3 million, respectively, in fiscal 2012, due primarily to the end of LEC billing, slightly offset by increases in fulfillment costs for our online marketing products, and increases in compensation costs for sales representatives, fulfillment and customer support for the Company's new revenue products.

Finally we anticipate reporting that other expenses were $3.0 million in fiscal 2013, as compared to $0.6 million in fiscal 2012. In fiscal 2013, other expenses included $3.3 million of non-cash charges associated with a beneficial conversion feature in the convertible notes that we issued to ICG, which were partially offset by interest income and other income items. Under generally accepted accounting principles, we are required to report such charges as an interest expense even though they did not involve any cash payments by us. In fiscal 2012, our other expenses included $0.5 million of similar non-cash charges, bringing the total amount of non-cash charges for the two-year period to approximately $3.8 million.

As a result, we anticipate reporting that our net loss was $5.4 million, or $1.73 per diluted share, in fiscal 2013 as compared to $1.6 million, or $0.76 per diluted share, in fiscal 2012. As described above, based on anticipated results as of the date of this filing, $3.3 million of our $5.4 million net loss in fiscal 2013, or about 61%, was attributable to non-cash charges associated with a beneficial conversion feature in the convertible notes that we issued to ICG.

A more detailed discussion of results of operations will be included in the Management's Discussion and Analysis of Financial Condition and Results of Operations in the above-referenced Form 10-K.

This Notification of Late Filing on Form 12b-25 contains forward-looking statements, including forward-looking statements relating to our financial results for our fiscal year ended September 30, 2013. These statements are based on our management's current expectations and involve a number of risks and uncertainties, including any changes to our anticipated financial results as a result of review by our audit committee or our independent registered public accounting firm. Our actual reported results may differ materially from these anticipated or expected results.
